THE TURF.

GENUINE SPORT AT MONMOUTH PARK. THE WEST END CLUB BACES-A CURIOUS BLUNDER AND ITS RESULTS-LONG BRANCH FUN.

LONG BRANCH, Aug. 16 .- The amateur races at the Monmouth Park, to-day, have been amusing if they have not been sportsmanlike, and no one can doubt that those who witnessed them came away as much gratified as though they had seen Tom Bowling and Basectt. A finer assemblage than that gathered at the Club-house never paid compliment to the turf, although, of course, the attendance was smaller than that which a race of national importance would have attracted. There were few strangers present, the company, which must have numbered several thousand, ing made up from the hotels and cottages, where the young gentlemen who form the West End Jockey Club are well known and popular. The club is compose of young men belonging to the wealthiest and mos respectable families at the Branch, and it-was not sur prising that nearly all the fine turn-outs and private carriages were found grouped in the spacious ground amouth Park. The ladies of the Branch turned out in spiendid array, dressed gergeously, and they on turned the Club-house, which is more accustome to the sights of glasses of brandy and sods than to oquets, into a bazaar, where there was on exhibition the most beautiful display of colors, set off with jewels and laces and feathers and ribbons. The grand stand was also about a quarter full of ladies and their attendauts, and the quarter-stretch was lively with gentlemen. small bet. No liquor was sold on the ground, and there was a notable absence of the fast element of society, which too often mars the enjoyment of a day's racing The crowd was a thoroughly orderly and good-natured although the most generous critic could not say that they were proficient in the practices of the race

The prizes to be run for were three handsome silver cups, worth in all about $1,000. The first was the Gentlemen's Cup, the second the Surplus Cup, and the third th Ladies' Cup. The first was to be given to the winner of mile heats, best two in three, the second to the second est horse, and the la lies' cup to the winner of a mile dash, gentlemen to rige their own horses. The first race was to be at 2 o'clock, but as always happens with nonprofessionals, it was delayed for an hour or more. The appearance of the gentlemen, all of whom with perhaps ingle exception were nearly or quite six feet in hight. dressed in the buckskin breeches, top boots, and silk acket of the jockey, was rather novel and amusing Every preparation, the necessity for which could be reseen, was made to insure success, but the delay became a little tiresome. Those in the grand stand were much more comfortable, and more nicely situated to see es than those at the Club-house, although the latter was the place of honor and required an extra

There were three entries for the first race-E. R. Stout enburgh's blk.4h. Gerald, Frank Durand's b. h. Impecu nious, and John Hoey, jr.'s, b. c. Lord Jersey. The two latter horses were from the stable of John Chamberlin. Impecunious was the favorite, because it was generally thought that Durand was the best rider. The tart in the first heat was a very bad one, and the black orse was off in good style at least three lengths ahead. lthough at one time Impecunious gained so as to lap Gerald head and flank, it was only for a moment, and then he was forced to take his old distance, which was afterward increased. It was evident to all before the three-quarter pole was reached that Impecunious was a horse, and that Lord Jersey was still worse. Gerald came in the easy winner in 1:571; Impecuations next, and Lord Jersey distanced. Everybody by this time was in capital humor, and there was great merriment over the time made. Various backmen standing on the quarte stretch winked knowingly to one another, and half a dozen of them said they had ek horses that they could ride to mill with a bag of grain and make better time. One man said that Weston his mile with greater case and in less time. The limit of the ridiculous was reached when a white-whiskered old fellow said he could roll a barrel of hard cider a mile up hill and drink a good share of it before those horses interesting. Lord Jersey being out, the race was beother two. The start was good, and Gerald had no difficulty in keeping out of Impecunious's way, and easily won in 2:02, amid shouts of laughter and clapping of hands. More jokes were cracked, and the crowd continued in excellent spirits, and seemed really to enswarded to Mr. Stoutenburg and the Surplus Cup was given to Mr. Durand. During the delay between the o races the occupants of the piazzas at the Club-

two races the occupants of the piazzas at the Club-bouse were furnished with an abundant collation and excellent music from Meyer's West End Band.

The interest in the Ladies' Cup was much greater for many reasons. The money for the cup had been raised by the ladies at the West End Hotel and the occupants of the West End cottages. The young gentlemen were to ride their own horses, and although the Ladies' Cup was of less value, it possessed a much greater interest because of the givers. The entries for this race, a mile-dash, were five, as follows: Frank Durand's ch. h. Jack Horner, Cnarles Willis's b. h. Modoc, John Hoey's ch. g. Lord Montouth, C. H. Townsend's b. g. Emmuy, and because of the givers. The entries for this race, a miledash, were five, as follows: Frank Durand's ch. h. Jack Horner, Charles Willis's b. h. Modoc, John Hoey's ch.
g. Lord Mentouth, C. H. Townsend's b. g. Eummy, and G. W. Peters's Golddust. The start was as good as was ever run on a race-track, all the horses getting off almost neck and neck. Somebody in the judges' stand, which was very unwisely packed full of people, jokingly said, "That's not a start," or something to that effect, intending his words to be taken ironically. But Mr.
Hiderman, who stood maar the bell, supposed the speaker wanted to call the riders back and therefore rang the bell.
Durant and Willis, it seems, were the only ones among the riders who understood that after the drum had been tapped there was no recall. Hoey, Townsend, and Peters therefore pulled in their horses at the tap of the bell, and willis for a time seemed somewhat in doubt, and held a very stiff rein, thus allowing Durand to lead him two or three lengths. This was a very pretty race, the horses keeping close together. As they came in on the last quarter Durand was ahead, and was whipping his horse, for Modoc was taking the road from him rapidly. As they reach the string Modoc sprang ahead, and the andience were long in doubt as to the winner.
From one portion of the grand stand it appeared that Modoc had won, and it was so regarded until the decision was made that Jack Horner was the winner. At this time there was intense excitement on the quarter stretch, and everybody was yelling at the top of his voice. For a long time it was not known who had rung the bell, and explanations were sought on every hand. Nobody seemed to understand the condition of affairs, and the confusion was intense. It was soon learned that the bell had been rung by mistake. If the luckless millionaire had been present at that minute he would have heard himself abused more than he ever was before, but as soon as he came for ward and said he had rung the bell, nobody had anything to

SARATOGA RACE MEETING.

THE SIXTH DAY'S SPORT-EOLUS, ARIZONA, BUSINESS. AND BLIND TOM THE VICTORS.

SARATOGA, Aug. 16.-The second Summer race meeting here was brought to a close to-day, and has proved a decided success. The weather was de lightful, the attendance large and fashionable, and the racing most exciting, the favorites in three out of the four races being beaten. In the first race Minnie Mac. formerly Minuic W., was beaten by Eolus, and in the second, the four-mile heat race, Hubbard, with heavy odds on him. was beaten by Arizona, who distanced him in the second heat. In the next race Wanderer was made the favorite, but he never showed conspicuously to the contest. Business winning easily. The steen chase produced an exhilirating race between Blind Tom and Trade Wind, the former winning cleverly.

The first race was a free handicap for all ages, for a purse of $500, one mile and an eighth. Of the 17 horses eighed by the handicapper eight came to the post viz. : Joe Daniels and Sue Ryder, from the stable of Confederacy; J. H. Harbeck's Eolus, C. J. Alloway's The Moor, A. C. Franklin's Golitza, G. Bell's Minnie Ma (formerly Minnie W), Rice & McCormick's Sunrise, and R. W. Cameron's chestnut colt by Leanington, dam Rebecca Rice. Pools on this race sold as under:

Joe Daniels being left behind, and did not get off until the leading horses had gone fifty yards. Golitza took ad, attended by Minnie Mac and Eclus, but both the latter passed him at the turn, Minnie going on with the running to the quarter pole. On the buck-stretch, Edus deprived Minnie of the lead, and retaining it

Hubbard, Viley, Bessie Lee, and Arizons started, Hubbard being the favorite at $100 to $25, while ever money was bet that he distanced on his opponents in the first heat. Bessie Lee made the running for thre quarters of a mile in the first heat, when Hubbard de prived her of the lead, and as they went under the string on the first mile he was leading, ber a length, she having Viley- at her safule girths, and Arizona two lengths away. On the second mile Habbard led four lengths, Arizona being second, six lengths before Viley, and Bessie Lee last. The third mile was run in the same manner, Hubbard leading Arizona two lengths, with Viley and Bessie Lee dead beaten one hundred yards behind. Hubbard costinued his lead on the fourth mile until entering the home-stretch, when Arizona went up to and challenged him, had him beat at the distance, and won the heat easily by two lengths in 7:54, Bessie Lee and Viley both distanced. The betting now changed, and became two to $50 on Arizona, who made the running throughout, and Hubbard being completely "pumped out," she won the heat and race in 3:28, distancing the representative of the Confederacy stable. Hubbard's defeat produced intense excitement, and was attributed to the fact that his trainer, Cot. McDaniel, anticipating a walk over in the race, had eased his horse in his work, and he was in consequence not in condition for a four mile heat race. on the first mile be was leading her a length, she having Blind Tom was the favorite against the field in the pool betting. Notary Public and Viley led the way over the jumps until they came to the water-jump in front of the grand stand, where Blind Tom, passing them, was first over, both Viley and Notary Public refusing to jump it. Trade Wind then became second, and laid close to Blind Tom the remainder of the race, the latter winning an exciting contest by three lengths. Time, 5:49.

UTICA PARK RACES.

THE THIRD DAY'S SPORT-A HEAVY TRACK-ST. JAMES AND GLOSTER THE WINNERS.

Time-5:49.

UTICA. Aug. 16 .- The Third day's races of the Uties Park Association took place to-day. The races were for 2:30 and 2:24 horses. The weather was cloudy in the morning and promised rain. Dusing the latter heats of both races these promises were fulfilled. During the first two heats in each, bowever, the track was in excellent condition. The attendance was larger than during yesterday.

In the 2:30 race there were five starters. In the pools Castle Boy sold at six to five against the field. The were off at the second scoring. On the start Heath Bloom led, with St. James second, and the favor te third. At the half-mile Lady Banker was first Brother Jonathan and St. James neck and neck, and Castle Boy still third. The latter acted badly throughout the heat, losing his feet twice. Nearing the three quarters, St. James gained the first place, with Jonathan second, Castle Boy third, and Heath Bloom fourth. The horses came home in this order, St. James winning by a length. The bad conduct of the favorite lowered him in the pools, and after the heat he sold at $3 to $15

In the second heat Castle Boy was off first, with St James second and Jonathan third. This position was retained to the half-mile. At the three-quarters Castle retained to the half-mile. At the three-quarters Castle Boy and St. James were nearly abreast. Beyond the three-quarters St. James pushed ahead. In the mean time Castle Boy had broken and fell back to the third place, giving Jonathan the second, then back to the fourth, giving Lady Banker the third. In this order the horses came home, St. James winning by about the same distance as before. Before the third heat was trotted the judges announced that Brother Jonathan had not heen driven to win, and compelled a change of jockeys. The horses were off in this order: St. James, Jonathan, Lady Banker, and Castle Boy. St. James kept the lead throughout, and Jonathan second. The former won the heat and race by half a length, giving the second money to Brother Jonathan, the third to Castle Boy, and the fourth to Lady Banker. Castle Boy was again badly behind.

EARLY DELIVERY OF PEACHES IN NEW-YORK The peach-growers and shippers of Delaware and Maryland have just succeeded in making such arrangements with the railroads as to insure the earty and prompt delivery of their peaches in Jersey City.

The delivery of the fruit to the Pennsylvania Central and about six trains, of 25 cars each, will be run daily at intervals of half an hour, the first train arriving at Jersey City at 1 a. m., and the last at 3:30 a. m. Under this arrangement, the peaches arriving at 1:30 a. m. oould be in every large market within 60 miles of New-York by 6 a. m., if the shippers had a ferry-boat and a slip on the east side of the North River. They hope, however, soon to have a slip at Thirty-second-st., and then the whole through route east of New-York will be opened.

GENERAL OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

REGATTA OF THE ATALANTA BOAT CLUB. The Atalanta Boat Club had its 25th annual egatta on Saturday. The steamer Virginia Seymour nd the barge Wm. Myers were hired for the friends of the club, and a programme of 24 dances was carried out, to the music of Wallace's Band. The races, four of which were contested by members of the Atalanta Club and one by oarsmen of the Gulick Club, were rowed over a course of one mile and return, the start and finish being a short distance above the railroad bridge over the Harlem River, and the stake-boat just below Ma comb's Dam Bridge. The Regatta Committee were F. H. Clark, E. Mills, jr., C. B. Zachman, J. C. O'Neill, B. F. Kobbe. The judges and timekeepers were Geo. M. Springsteen and the referee was Chas. A. Peverelly. The first race which took place at 4 o'clock was for the senior championship of the Atalanta Club and for the Atalanta prize belt. It was contested by Eben Losee, E. Blake, and J. C. O'Neill. E. Losee came in first in 15 minutes and 25 seconds. Half way up the course Lose and Blake fouled, but the latter's judge put in no claim that he had lost the race thereby. The second contes that he had lost the race thereby. The second contest was for the junior championship of the Atalanta Club, and for the Columbia prize belt, a second prize of a gold rowing badge being offered. George M. Young, who has held the junior championship for three years, again carried off the prize easily in 14 minutes, $3 seconds, though rowing in a working boat, while his two competitors. W. A. Penney. who took the second prize, and Edward Mills, jr., used shells. Next came a contest for the championship of the Guliek Boat Club, and for a gold badge worth $150. John Bryson carried off the honors in 14:15, having a hollow victory over his single rival. Thomas Moore. The fourth race of the day was between the Atalanta and Columbia crews, and was rowed in eight-oared barges with coxswains, the prize being the Ladies' Plate. This was an interesting contest. The Columbia won by two lengths in 14:26. The winning crew included W. H. Spear, stroke, P. C. Benjamin, bow, with W. A. Penney. C. B. Zachman, W. C. Mariord, E. Mills, jr., W. J. Knight, and E. Losee, J. P. Burrell acting as coxswain. In the second barge were C. Earwicker, afroke, Geo. W. Young, bow, and Geo. T. Ackerson, J. T. Fryer, W. T. Monk, A. R. Haddock, Wm. F. Silkonard, H. Brown, with A. S. Swan coxswain.

The final race, which was fraught with interest to the lady friends of the club, on account of the influence its result might have upon the kymencal inclinations of its members, was the annual contest between the married and unmarried men of the club, rowed in four-oared shells. For a score of years the Benedicts have annually beaten the bachelors, cleverly demonstrating the superiority of the married state. On Saturday the bachelors were blue and white, and their names and places as follows: E. Blake, bow: H. B. Lee Roy, No. 2; C. S. Osbora, No. 3, and J. C. O'Neill, stroke. The married men rowed second in the Excelsior, with magenta and white colors and these positions: A. S. Swan, bow; S. Van Zandt, No. 2; Alex. Hardy, No. 3, and T. Von Raden, stroke. was for the junior championship of the Atalanta Ciub.

NEW-YORK YACHT SQUADRON.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 17 .- Most of the New-York Yacht Squadron have arrived at Newport. At the Marine Ratiway, in East Providence, this afternoon, the yacht Dreadnaught was being taken up to clear the bottom for the expected regatta, when a portion of the yacht's slender keel turned over and the yacht fell over on to the side of the cradle, which was run back to the water, when the vessel righted, with injury only to the

BY CANOE TO LONG BRANCH.

Mr. Donaldson started on Saturday on a trial trip to Long Branch, in a canoe which Prof. Wise and himself are to take in their larger boat in their proposed transatlantic balloon excursion. The canoe is 14 feet in length and 2 feet 4 mehes in width, is constructed paper three-eighths of an inch in thickness, and weighs only 68 pounds. Mr. Donaldson paddied the canoe from only 68 pounds. Mr. Donaidson paddied the cance it the foot of Whitehall-st. to Governor's Island, then hoisted sail and started for Sandy Hook; but reaching Staten Island, he concluded to pass night there. He accordingly drew up his craft on shore, and, wrapping his blankets around him, used teamora as a coach. He continued his voyage, yesterd morning, without accident, stopping at Coney Isla and Red Hook, and landing in front of the Ocean Hout 4:20 m. As the cance approached the shore: and feed Hook, and landing in front of the Ocean Hotel at 4:30 p.m. As the cance approached the shore she was received by hundreds of promenaders on the bluffs. She was handled with great skill, and rode the water like a sea bird. As she approached the shore a boy sprang into the water to guide her through the surf, which was very high; but in spite of his efforts she was rolled over by a large wave just as she struck the beach, and the voyager was thrown into the shallow water.

THE CREEDMOOR PRIZES

The directors of the National Rifle Associaion will meet at No. 194 Broadway, at 4 p. m., to-morrow, and will probably decide on the proposed date, Oct. 8 for the opening of the annual prize shooting at Creednoor, which will occupy several days. The Hon. Nathaniel Miles, formerly Speaker of the New-Jersey House, will offer a prize to be known as the "Jersey Challenge Cup," to be competed for by representatives of the New-Jersey National Guard. A State prize of $500, to the best train of twelve, with a gold-mounted rifle for the best shot in each train, will be presented by Remington & Co. A Gatling gun, valued at $2,500, to be won three times, will be open for competition to any militia regiment in the United States. Col. Church will offer to the competition of any militia organization in the United States, a silver trophy, Gerham design, valued at $700, to be won twice. Gen. Shaier will give a prize valued at $100, which, with the State prize of the same amount, will be open to the competition of the First Division. Gen. Woodward will give a prize of the equal value to the Second Division. A number of medals, badges, and money prizes will be offered by the Association, among which will be a handsome medal presented by Bethel Burton. The total value of the prizes will reach $6,500. It has been decided that members of the National Association will only be allowed to practice at Creedmoor as individuals, but that any military organization of the National Guard, if appearing in uniform, and commanded by its officers, may have free use of the range. Members of the Association frequently visit the range for practice. A large number went out on Saturday and exhibited some fine markmanship.

The Atlantics of Brooklyn and the Mutuals of this city played for the lifth time this season on the Union Grounds, on Saturday, in the presence of about 1,500 people. The game was a poor one, both sides doing considerable "muffing." The only notable feature was the splendid center fielding of Remsen, he making some of the finest catches seen on the ground this Summer. Little interest was manifested in the game, which was won by the Mutuals by the following score:

between the Actives and Arrings, and the former by a score of 7 to 6.

The Athletics of Philadelphia played their fourth game of the championship series with the Washingtons, in Philadelphia on Saturday, defeating them by a score of 14 to 0.

About 3,000 people witnessed the game in Chicago on Saturday, between the Boston and Philadelphia Clubs, which resulted in favor of the former by a score of 11

The Occidentals were defeated by the Marshals at the Elysian Fields, on Saturday, by a score of 48 to 34. CRICKET.

The St. George and Staten Island Clubs played at Camp Washington, S. I., on Saturday, both clubs doing finely. The St. George's won by a score of 91 to 38.

The Manhattans will leave for Boston on Wednesday evening, to play there with the Waltham and Boston Clubs.

OBITUARY.

THE HON. WILLIAM M. MEREDITH.

The Hon. William M. Mcredith of Philadelphia died yesterday in that city at the advanced age of ?? years. He was born in Ponnsylvania in 1796, studie iaw, and was admitted to the bar, attaining considerable success in his profession. He took an active part in politics, and was an influential supporter of the Whi and subsequently of the Republican party in his State. In 1849, when President Taylor came into power, he appointed Mr. Meredith Secretary of the Treasury, which office he held 15 months, when, on which office he held 15 months, when, on the death of Mr. Taylor, he was succeeded by the Hon. Thomas Corwin of Ohio. Some weeks before he was nominated for that position he gave this sentiment in a letter apologizing for his absence from a Taylor and Fillmore featural in Pottsville, "Pennsylvania:—proof alike against the wisdom of her enemies and the subtleties of professing friends—she will always stand for the rights of industry and the principles of freedom."

Mr. Meredith was a member of and presided over the last Constitutional Convention in Pennsylvania, and having been elected also a member of the present one he was invested with the same honorable position. Despite the infirmities of age he discharged his duties satisfactorily, and from his experience in public affairs was one of the most valuable members of the convention.

SUMMERTIDE RELIGION.

SUNDAY AT OCEAN GROVE.

THE DOCTRINE OF CHRISTIAN PERFECTION AT THE NATIONAL CAMP-MEETINGS-LOVE PEAST EXPR-

OCEAN GROVE, N. J., Aug. 17 .- The campseting at this place will close to-morrow, and the atendance at the services to-day was much larger than at any previous time. The Ocean Grove settlement has a twofold character. During the entire Summer it is a pleasant Methodist watering-place; for ten days the camp-meeting feature is added and temporary tents are interspersed among the cottages, and encircle the plot devoted to public preaching. Fully 300 tents now stand on the grounds of the association, and many handsome vilias have been added during the present season. The avenues and pathways have been greatly improved, and as a Summer resort Ocean Grove presents many attractions. The camp-meeting held here is of a somewhat peculiar It is one of the kind which was first at Round Lake, near Saratoga, and known as "National." t is under the especial direction of a class of Methodists known as Santificationists, and their preaching and prayers are devoted mainly to the subject of Christian perfection or perfect love. Exhortations are not addressed to sinners to seek salvation so much as to Christians—laymen and preachers alike to strive after what they denominate the "Second These national camp meetings are attended lessing." by people from all parts of the country, and a few prom-inent advocates of the special doctrine taught, take the lead in the exercises. Among these are Mr. Inship, Mr. McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. Palmer, and others, who spend a large part of the summer in attendance at national camp meetings, passing from one to the other in rapid necession. The last two persons have not been at the Ocean Grove meeting this year. The services this morning began with a prayer-meet ing at 5 o'clock, which was not largely attended. At o'clock there was a general love-feast. The preachers stand was filled with ministers, and 2,000 or 3,000 persons were seated on benches and camp-stools in the grove in front. The people were requested by Mr. Stokes, the leader, to confine their remarks to what God had done for them at this camp-meeting. "Have you obnew Pisgah has been reached; what pleasant labor have we enjoyed?" The experiences were given with great rapidity and earnestness, in many instances consisting of a single sentence, or an apt quotation from some well-known hymn or passage from the Bible. A preacher said that he had not been particularly happy during the meeting, but had had his faith strengthened during the meeting, but had had his faith strengthened. A young physician from Philadelphia who, in his enthusiasm last week, took his studs, sleeve-buttons and watch chain and throw them into the missionary box, made a long speech about his entire consecration to God, and proposed to start a new missionary society, but was, after a time, called to order. When the hour of 10 had nearly arrived Mr. Stokes said: "We have had 12' testimonies and have four minutes left. Let us have the balance of 150 in four minutes. Two or three speak at once." The addresses now came more rapidly and from all parts of the ground at once. When the hour of closing came the speakers numbered nearly 200. An appeal was made for contributions to found a scholarship for the education of a native of India, who should preach the gospel among his people. A thousand dollars were required, a part of which had been raised on a former occasion. The remainder was speedily realized from $5 to $10 subscriptions. The Rev Mr. McDonald of Boston preached from Isaiah lxii., 10: "Laft up a standard for the people." The standard taken by the preacher was the doctrine of Christian perfection, which he proceeded to explain in a discourse that occupied an hour and a half. At 1 p. m. a Sunday-school meeting was held in the Tabernacle; at 2 there was a preacher's meeting at the stand; at 3 Dr. Alwood of Philadelphia preached; at 4 there was a children's meeting; at 4:30 there was a meeting of indies, led by Mrs. Inship, in one of the tents, and in another a meeting of young people; at 7 p. in. there was preaching by the Rev. Mr. Turner of Philadelphia, followed by a prayer meeting. A young physician from Philadelphia who, in his enthu-

THE MERRICK CAMP-MEETING. The camp-meeting at Merrick, L. I., which was to have closed on Thursday, but which was almost broken up by the storm, was continued through the week, and will close to-day. Yesterday's services were perhaps the most interesting of the whole series. The day was cool and delightful and the attendance increased throughout the day, till it reached about 5,000. The Rev. C. T. Mallory preached in the morning, from I Timothy, III. 16, "Great is the mystery of Godiness; God was manifested in the flesh." It's purpose was to show the varied, and at times mysterious methods by which God effects His purposes. The Rev. which God effects His purposes. The Rev. Mr. Eeynolds followed in an earnest exhortation. The children's meeting at 1 p. in. was unusually interesting, the address being by Mrs. George Lansing Taylor, wife of the Hempstead Pastor, Mr. Mallory, and others. The Rev. Matthew Hale Smith preached in the afternoon on "The Usefulness of Religion," the aim being to show that religion is essential as well to success as to happiness and salvation. The Rev. Mr. Worth of Newbridge, L. I., preached in the evening. Special preparations have been made for to-night's closing exercises, which will be of a highly interesting character.

NEW CHURCHES OPENED.

A CHURCH DEDICATED AT ASTORIA. The new edifice of the Church of the Blessed Virgin, situated on Newtown-ave., fronting the Crescent, Astoria, was dedicated by the Right Rev. Bishop Loughlin, yesterday. The church is built in the Gothic style, of brick, with Ohio freestone trimmings, at a cost of $55,000. It is 50 feet in width, by 127 feet in depth, and has a seating capacity of more than 800. The corner-stone was laid by the Bishop of the diocese in 1871. The interior arrangements of the church are exceedingly neat, the finishing being in walnut, ash, and other hard woods. At the right of the altar is a fine painting of the Archangel Michael ejecting Lucifer from It is a copy by Chatelaine of a freaco by Michael Angelo at Rome, and was presented to the church by Frederick Stevens of New-York. The windows are of stained glass, and are mostly memorial tributes contributed by different members of the church. The roof is supported by ten pillars, five on either side of the center of the church, forming graceful arches beneath the ceiling. Each pillar is encircled midway between base and capital by a belt of gas-jets in blue and gold, representing crowns of thorns, which add greatly to the interior appearance of the edifice. Attached to the church is half an acre of ground, on which will be placed the parochial residence and a parochial

At yesterday's ceremonies the altars were profusely decorated with flowers, and the seating capacity of the church was tested to its fullest limit. The dedicatory services began at 10 a. m., at which hour the procession, consisting of the cross-bearer, two acolytes with candies, and nine altar boys, followed by the Bishop and the pastor of the church, the Rev. James Phelan, entered the sanctuary from the vestry, and passing the altar proceeded down the center aisle to the church entrance. proceeded down the center assis to the canter darks approved by the procession made the circuit of the building, repeating prayers and chanting hymns. Reëntering the church it proceeded up the main asis repeating the litany of the Saints to the Sanctuary, and then made a tour around the interior walls of the editine, closing the ceremonies at the altar. Immediately after the completion of the dedication the Right Rev. Bishop celebrated High Mass, assisted by the Rev. Father Malone of Williamsburgh, the Rev. Father Suyder of St. Patrick's Church, Dutch Kills, and the Pastor. The Choir consisted of Miss Lamara of St. Peter's Church, Brooklyn, soprano; Mrs. J. A. Furey of St. Peters, contraile; Sig. Boy, tenor, and James A. Fury, bass; James A. Hoey of St. Mary's Church, Brooklyn, served as organist. During the ceremonies, the Choir executed, Weber's Mass in G. Millard's "Vont Creator," and Loretz's "Ave Marie." The Bishop prefaced his address by reading the 1st Chapter of Ephesians. He then congratulated the pastor and congregation on the completion of the new building, which was greatly needed in aid of a faithful discharge of their religious duties. He then dwelf on the sublimity, grandeur, and simplicity of the religion of Christ as taught by them, His apostles, and their successors. At the close of the sermon the holy communion was administered to ten persons who had received nearly two hours, and were throughout of a nightly interesting and impressive character. Passing down the front steps the procession made the ion was administration. The entire exercises lasted mearly two hours, and were throughout of a nighty inter-esting and impressive character. DEDICATION OF AN UP-TOWN CHURCH.

The new Roman Catholic Church of St. Cecilia, at One-hundred-and-fifth-st. and Second-ave., was dedicated yesterday. The Most Rev. Archbishop Mc Closkey was present and officiated at High Mass. The Rev. Father Mooney was celebrant, and was assisted by the Rev. Fathers Canary, deacon, and Flood, sub-deacon. There were also present the Rev. Fathers Gocklin, Healy of St. Bernard's, McCarty and O'Flaherty of the Healy of St. Bernard's, McCarty and O'Francry of the Holy Innocents, and Flattery, pastor. The Rev. Father Farrely was Master of Ceremonies. The Rev. Dr. Spald-ing of St. Michael's Parish preached the sermon, from the text, "To-day salvation has been wrought upon this house." He emphasized the fact that God has no need of any temple, but that the worshiper needs it. The church formed, however, a great spiritual temple. It was a great teacher of brotherhood and of true liberty, and a great uplifter of all men toward God. It should be revered, and the outward temple revered for its sake, and the best of all things should be be ples of freedom."

Mr. Mercelith was a member of and presided over the last Constitutional Convention in Pennsylvania, and having been elected also a member of the present one be was invested with the same honorable position.

Despite the infirmities of age he discharged his duties satisfactorily, and from his experience in public affairs was one of the most valuable members of the convention.

The Rev. Dr. McGlynn of St. Stephpropriate ecremonies. The Rev. Dr. McGlynn of St. Stephen's church. New-York, preached this sermon, and Mass was toolebrated by the Rev. Father Doane, Chancellor of the Discese, and assistants. A procession of the Father Mathew, Hibernian. Workingthen's, and other societies took place in the afternoon. The new edifice is 170 by 88 feet in extent, and will cost $80,000, exclusive of the ground, which cost $80,000. The building will seat 1,689 persons. The old church building will be altered into a school. The parish, which is under the charge of the Rev. J. D. Concillo, is said to be in a flourishing condition.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Wisconsin Patrons of Husbandry will hold a State Convention at Watertown Aug. 26. The Liberals of Hamilton County, Ohio, fol-owing the lead of the People's or New Party Conven-tion, will hold a convention and nominate a full ticket. The Massachusetts Republicans will either have to change the time of holding their State Conven-tion, set down for Sept. 17, or find another hall in Worcester for that purpose, for it is now aunounced that Mechanics' Hall, the place designated, is engaged for that entire week by the Horticultural Society.

The Hon. Amasa Walker has addressed a letter to the Hon. William S. Groesbeck taking exception to some of the latter's statements in his famous letters upon the demand for a new party, Mr. Walker thinks t would inevitably destroy a great part of our manufact tures to establish Free Trade before specie payment has been restored. He is in favor of Free Trade, but does not want it with our present currency. He mentions the following as indispensable planks in the platform of the party which is to control the future of the country : First and foremost, effective measures for the gradual but certain restoration of the currency; secondly, for regulating the internal commerce of the country by se-curing equitable charges for transportation; thirdly, for establishing a strictly revenue tariff; that is, one that shall not interfere with the lodustry of the country—in other words, a Free Trade tariff."

Two more Congressmen have been attempting a defense of the back-pay swindle, and as a matter of course have not succeeded. Mr. Niblack of Indiana was convinced that his constituents would criticize his action, but he wanted the money pretty badly, and so he drew it. He believes a more radical course than simply restoring the money to the Treasury is needed, and he is willing, therefore, to aid in securing a repeal of the law so that there may be a general restitution. His constituents are not satisfied with this explanation, doubtless thinking that if Mr. Niblack is in earnest he would give better proof of it by returning the money at once and striving for a repeal of the law afterward. The other Congressman who has explained is Mr. L. D. Campbell of Ohio, who says he left a sick bed to vote campest of Oilo, who says he left a sick bed to vote against the bill, and that, although he is badly in need of money, he has not drawn his part of the grab. Moreover, he intends to keep control of it until he has been shown some person who has a better claim to it than he has, assuring his friends that he shall act finally so as to preserve honesty and integrity. There is only one way to do that—return the money to the Treasury.
